SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Worship begins when the first person arrives. Please worship silently through the prelude.

*Please stand if able

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

In the time of King David, the ark of the covenant was the principal emblem of Israel's worship, heritage, and common life, and so the move of the ark to Jerusalem was cause for much celebration. Today's lesson from 2 Samuel recounts, "David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might." Not everyone looks kindly upon the celebration, including Michal, the daughter of Saul, who scolds David and remains barren for life as a result. In John's gospel, King Herod hears of the mighty acts of Jesus' disciples, and he worries that John the Baptist, whom he agreed to have killed, had been raised. Herod is haunted by his decision to tangle with a power greater than his own.

From Wikipedia

"Michael Row the Boat Ashore" is a Negro spiritual. It was first noted during the American Civil War at St. Helena Island, one of the Sea Islands of South Carolina. It is cataloged as Roud Folk Song Index No. 11975. It was sung by former slaves whose owners had abandoned the island before the Union navy arrived to enforce a blockade. Charles Pickard Ware was an abolitionist and Harvard graduate who had come to supervise the plantations on St. Helena Island from 1862 to 1865, and he wrote down the song in music notation as he heard the freedmen sing it. Ware's cousin William Francis Allen reported in 1863 that the former slaves sang the song as they rowed him in a boat across Station Creek. The song was first published in 1867 in Slave Songs of the United States by Allen, Ware, and Lucy McKim Garrison.

On behalf of the congregation, the Pastor expresses the corporate prayers of the congregation. These prayers are for world, local and personal concerns.

Doxology literally means "words of glory." Doxologies have long been used by Jews and Christians to praise God. Here we honor and thank God "from whom all blessings flow."

REVISED COMMON LECTIONARY

This lectionary provides a three-year series of readings for Sunday starting with the season of Advent, four weeks before Christmas Day.

The three year cycle is split into years – A,B, and C. For each Sunday and festival, three readings and a psalm are suggested and include: a Gospel reading, an Old Testament reading, and a New Testament reading.

The lectionary is a work of The Consultation on Common Texts, an ecumenical consultation of liturgical scholars and denominational representatives from the United States and Canada, who produce liturgical texts for use in common by North American Christian Churches.

Each year of the Revised Common Lectionary centers on one of the synoptic Gospels – Matthew, Mark and Luke. The Gospel of John is read periodically in all three years and is especially frequent in Year B.

Revised Common Lectionary Readings for Sunday, July 15, 2018, the Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B)

First Reading: 2 Samuel 6:1-5, 12b-19
Psalm: Psalm 24

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:3-14
Gospel: Mark 6:14-29

Psalm 24

- 1The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it;
- 2for he has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers.
- 3Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place?
- 4Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false, and do not swear deceitfully.
- 5They will receive blessing from the LORD, and vindication from the God of their salvation.
- 6Such is the company of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.
- 7Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
- 8Who is the King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle.
- 9Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
- 10Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Gospel Mark 6:14-29

14King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him." 15But others said, "It is Elijah." And others said, "It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." 16But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." 17For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. 18For John had been telling Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." 19And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, 20for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. 21But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. 22 When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it." 23And he solemnly swore to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom." 24She went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" She replied, "The head of John the baptizer." 25Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." 26The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. 27Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, 28brought his head on a platter, and gave it to her mother. 29When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.
